

I stongly support the NAB's petition to block Satelllite radio from broadcasting local news and weather elements. By even making this request, Satelllite Radio has shown that they basically LIED to the FCC in order to get a license. It seems this encroachment was their intention all along. In their application to the FCC they PROMISED to stay away from "localized" programming. Make them keep that promise!